

Trial And Error

Queen Naija

...get I'm human too?
Human, just like you
Did you forget I'm human too?
Human, just like you
Yeah, yeah

I been going through some changes with myself
Bad decisions got me questioning myself
No, don't you pity me, I don't need no help
I'm tryna deal with the hand that I been dealt (Oh)
In my twenty somethings, tryna get it together
In my twenty somethings, I'll be here forever
Got the whole world judging, it don't make it no better
At the end of the day

Our feelings don't matter 'cause nobody cares
Gotta keep pushing 'cause life just ain't fair
If you really want it, gotta do it yourself
Time waits on nobody, you must be prepared

'Cause without the rain, you plant a seed that can't grow
Without mistakes, the right way, you won't know
It's by trial and error
Trial and error, yeah

I'm very much aware of my weaknesses
Even if I tried, they wouldn't let me forget
She ain't got no backbone, no mind of her own
She's too codependent, she can't be alone
I know I got a lot to improve
Take a look in the mirror, so do you
But they don't get that I'm human too
And I could go on until I'm blue but

Feelings don't matter 'cause nobody cares
Gotta keep pushing, 'cause life just ain't fair
If you really want it, gotta do it yourself
Time waits on nobody, you must be prepared

'Cause without the rain, you plant a seed that can't grow
Without mistakes, the right way, you won't know
It's by trial and error
Trial and error, yeah

...get I'm human too?
Human, just like you
Did you forget I'm human too?
Human, just like you
Did you forget I'm too?
Human, just like you
Did you forget I'm human too
Human, just like you
