

Let Your Heart Rule Your Head

Queen

If you've got time to stay and listen to my story
Just a moment of your life is all I need
Don't say we should be parted
Because we only just got started
Let your heart rule your head tonight

There's a full moon shining on the water
There's a warm breeze blowing off the sea
And when my pulse starts a racing
I know life is for the tasting
Let your heart rule your head tonight

Let your heart rule your head
Let your heart rule your head
Let your heart rule your head tonight
When your whole world is sinking
Come to my way of thinking
Let your heart rule your head tonight

It's been so long since I put my arms around you
And I don't know if it's real or it's a dream
But don't pussy-foot about it
Shout it
Just can't live without it
Let your heart rule your head tonight (everybody)

Let your heart rule your head
Let your heart rule your head
Let your heart rule your head tonight
When your whole world is sinking
Come to my way of thinking
Let your heart rule your head tonight

Ooh you're starin' at my face as though I'm crazy
When I tell you that I need you every day
Can't you see that I love you pretty baby
And ol' time don't ever stop tickin' away - yeah

Well your Mama don't mind
And your Papa don't mind
But you'll never be mine
If you're thinking all the time
We can work it out right
When I'm holding you tight
We can make it tonight
'Cos it ain't no crime

Don't let the moment slip away
Don't think about it - do it

Well I know that we're in a time of changes
And in love there is danger everywhere
But consider every portion
When you've taken your precautions
Let your heart (let your heart)
Let your heart (let your heart)
Let your heart (let your heart)

Let your heart let your heart let your heart

Let your heart rule your head...

Oh sing it with me

Let your heart rule your head

Let your heart rule your head

Let your heart rule your head tonight

When your whole world is sinking

Come to my way of thinking

Let your heart rule your head tonight

Let your heart rule your head tonight
