

Flow

Queensberry

I never could control it
Long enough to own it
Love was always slipping through my hands
So hard to hold it

And at that time
It was the last thing on my mind
We get so high
I couldn't tell my wrong from right

I once had love, love, love
And let it go, let it go
If I can live without it now I know, now I know
Next time around take it slow let it flow
Nobody wants to be alone
Nobody wants to be alone

Flow, flow oh
Flow, flow oh

Tried my best to hide it
Lose it just to find it
You only miss it when it's gone
Can't stop, rewind it

And now I know
you were a prize worth playing for
It stopped me cold, and like a fool I'm back for more

I once had love, love, love
And let it go, let it go
If I can live without it now I know, now I know
Next time around take it slow let it flow
Nobody wants to be alone
Nobody wants to be alone

I once had love, love, love
And let it go, let it go
If I can live without it now I know, now I know
Next time around take it slow let it flow
Nobody wants to be alone
Nobody wants to be alone

Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody wants to be alone
Let it flow, let me flow, let me flow let it flow
And save my soul
Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody, nobody wants to be alone
Let it flow, let me flow, let me flow let it flow

I once had love, love, love
And let it go, let it go
If I can live without it now I know, now I know
Next time around take it slow let it flow
Nobody wants to be alone
Nobody wants to be alone

I once had love, love, love
If I can live without it now I know, now I know
Next time around take it slow let it flow
Nobody wants to be alone
