

Fallen

Queensrÿche

I've seen the look in your eyes
And there's no... no easy answers
You gave it all you had
But there's so... so many questions

Questions, questions

For this insane desire
For this unbearable lie
Lies are empty promises
All this just stays ready to play

Yes, I know
Ready to play
That you're falling, falling
Believe you could say anything
Anything, you'd say anything
When you're fallen, fallen...

What'd buried inside we speak
An innocent victim
The articles of your past
Will someday go listen
The hardship you have won't last

For this insane desire
For this unbearable lie
Close your eyes and look inside
All this will fade

Ready to play
Yes, I know
That you're falling, falling
Believe you could say anything
You'd do anything, you'd say anything
When you're fallen, fallen...

Ready to play

Believe you could say anything
Anything, you'd say anything
When you're fallen
When you're fallen, fallen
When you're fallen, fallen
When you're fallen, fallen
