

Hellfire

Queensrÿche

Lock down
What do we make of this madness?
It's a world gone mad

Shot down
Identity unknown
Mistaken for the enemy

Artillery
Placed in the hands of a few
Psychosomatic rebellion

Collateral damage
Here comes the shrapnel again
Piercing screams in my head

Blackened
Shattered remains
A season of change
Anger and fear fuel the fire

Blinded
Blind to the eyes of the world
Under a jaded sky

Rapture
Heaven or hellfire
We are fractured again

Silenced from the underground
Robbing the blind and steal from the dead

Blackened
Shattered remains
A season of change
Anger and fear fuel the fire

Tragic
Loss and despair
No rhyme or reason

Blackened
Shattered remains
Black are the souls that tear down humanity

What will you do when they come for you?
They're closing in!
They're coming!
Fight for your life!
