

In Extremis

Queensrÿche

Prisms will deceive you when you start to fade, do not fear Prison, no longer strangled by the rules of the game, who's to blame

Rainbows, they only laugh when you cry
Lighting has struck you not once but twice
Warfare, it will subside when you are blind
Love's within your reach and there's no time

By my side, come closer if you can, I'm near the end
Say goodbye, I'll still be listening, don't you cry

A silent room with solitude
Playing your final hand
With nothing more that they can do
Do you know where you stand

When you are forced, forced to move on Nothing can break you, nothing can break you again

Terror, a haunting gaze no one can seem to break, time draws ne ar
Clearer, you right the wrongs before you reach the gates, can't escape

Rainbows, they only laugh when you cry
Lighting has struck you not once but twice
Warfare, it will subside when you are blind
Love's within your reach and there's no time

By my side, come closer if you can, I'm near the end
Say goodbye, I'll still be listening, don't you cry
Time to fly
