

Realms

Queensrÿche

Who's gonna wear your crown
Who's gonna break your fall
As your kingdom crumbles, broken down to sand and dust
Tangled in your bed of nails

You've become the depths of your remains
The straight and narrow lies behind the realms

Who's gonna face your fears
Who's gonna lie in your bed
And there's no remorse, the shame for all the world to see
Pride comes before a fall

You've become the depths of your remains
The straight and narrow lies behind the realms

I close my eyes still wide awake

You've become the depths of your remains
The straight and narrow lies behind the realms

And there's no remorse, who's gonna face your fears
