

Running Backwards

Queensrÿche

Last time I looked you wasn't feeling too good about love
Really had it up in here, really had it opened her up
Turn it up
When I have what happen next you say
This won't do, you say back back back back

I fall quick, this world of vain
Screaming from the back of your head
As I dream you'll do nothing to move on
Keep running, keep running backwards

Running backwards
Running backwards
Running backwards
Running backwards

Had to have your back before you knew what was wrong
Free square, I'm new with that
Innocence gone
There was day you said said better this way
Til you say back back back back

And I'd never run away
From feeling that it's your fault, welcome to it
In the conduct you'll blaze up to it slow
Keep running, keep running backwards

Running backwards
Running backwards
Running backwards

Running backwards
Running backwards
Running backwards
Running backwards

Anything, is that in vain?
Screaming from the back of... back of
If you could not, nothing to look on
Keep running, keep running backwards
You'll never get away
From feeling that it's your fault, it's your fault
If you could not, nothing to look on
Keep running, Keep running
Keep running backwards
