

Calling

QUIÑ

Hey, yeah

You know that I've been waiting
Your love's been (Been) calling me
You know that I've been waiting
Your love's been (Been) calling me

Soon as you hit that dial, baby
Ooh, it makes me wanna shout, hey
As soon as I get that get right from ya, lover
You're all that I'm talkin' 'bout, hey

Wanna tell me how you got so goddamn fine?
You be running all around my mind
But I ain't gon' stop you, go ahead, take your time
No, I ain't gon' leave you, know that you're all mine

You know that I've been waiting
Your love's been (Been) calling me
You know that I've been waiting
Your love's been (Been) calling me

Soon as I see your name ringing, ooh
It gives me butterflies, ooh, ayy
As soon as I hear your voice on the other line
My heart beats double time (Damn)

Wanna tell me how you got so goddamn fine?
You be running all around my mind
But I ain't gon' stop you, go ahead, take your time
No, I ain't gon' leave you, know that you're all mine

You know that I've been waiting
Your love's been (Been) calling me
You know that I've been waiting
Your love's been (Been) calling me

Don't give it away, my love, or I'm going crazy
I need all of it every day
Don't you wanna be my baby?
Forever, my love
Don't give it away, my love, or I'm going crazy
I need all of it every day
I know you wanna be my baby
Forever, my love is

Waiting (You know, you know)
Your love's been (Your love's been calling)
Calling me (Calling me, yeah)
You're waiting (You know, you know)
Your love's been (Your love's been calling)
Calling me (Calling me)
