

I AM

QUIÑ

Woke up from...

Woke up from a dream I had this morning (oh)
And right before my eyes see it's unfolding
And in the corner of my mind
I let, let it creep up from behind, my bed
From the corner of my eyes
I'm blinded from all of the lightening

Just, know that you shine all bright
I know your'e mind alright
And over time I tried, to get all caught up in ya
But I gotta run that back
And I gotta handle that
And I need a reminder yeah

I am QUIÑ the magnificent I am
I need a remind ya
I am QUIÑ the great I Am I am
I need a reminder for that

Cause I am QUIÑ the magnificent I am
But I need a reminder for that
I am QUIÑ the great I Am I am

Trying not to try at all
Slipping away through my waterfall
I'm quieting my mind for ya
Cause I wanna be free just as much as you do
Better learn than never try at all
Hoping you can catch me when I fall - for your eyes, I remain I
Right before your eyes I remain I
Right before your eyes I remain I

I am QUIÑ the magnificent I am
I am QUIÑ the great I Am I am

I am QUIÑ the magnificent I am
I am QUIÑ the great I Am I am
