

Thinking About You

QUIN

Lying on the front lawn
I got all these questions for you
I just need an answer
How long should I wait here for you
I gotta know
I gotta know right now
I've suffered enough
And you know that I'm
I'm over it by now

I gotta know babe
Do you think about me?
I wanna know babe
Cause I've been thinking bout you all damn day

I gotta know babe
How long does it take
I'm right in front of your face
You know that I-
I gotta know babe
How long does it take?
Are you thinking of me?
Cause I've been thinking bout you all damn day
You know that I need you...
I need you

Are you thinking about me baby yeah
Are you thinking about me now
I caught you sailing
Through my brain the other day
Help me figure it all out
Do you think about me baby yeah
Are you thinking about me now
I caught you running through
My mind the other night
My hearts racing with you
Racing with you, let's run

On the front lawn
Thinking up these questions for you
Man I need an answer yeah
I'm sick of misunderstanding you
How long should I wait for you
This is dangerous
If I can't get it all, forget it all
I'm about to break it off
I could have anyone in the world but you
What's up with that huh?

Lie in the sand
Call out my name don't you miss it babe
All in a daze
Covered in rage
Space is overrated
But I need your love
Right now...
What if I said I run away with you

Dreamland
Hate the night time when you're so far away
But I will wait for you
Hold me tight
You got all night to show me yeah
The moon is the spotlight
Nigga better get it right
I wanna know, I gotta know...
Do you think about me baby yeah
Are you thinking about me now?
