

You're physical
Fiends for bones to break
Needs for action
Violence to fate
Means nothing to you
Who takes the fall
Because there's no consequence
It's immaterial, It's immaterial
A new life

We're never meant to feel completed
As long as we're here
It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter what for

I'm still on your side
We're so affectionate
Seen on the surface
Drawn to the depths of it
Means nothing to you
Who takes the fall
In this place of tension
Always so rational
It's immaterial
A new life

We're never meant to feel completed
As long as we're here
It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter what for
We're never meant to feel completed
As long as we're here
It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter what for
