Rodan

Quicksand

Thinking to myself
Thinking to myself, myself
I am thinking
Following a line
Parachuting out in time
I see you there
Rodan

People noticing each other
I see it happen very often
Living just around the corner
Share the same existence
Doesn't make a difference

Deconstructed, isolated
Too far gone to contemplate it
Deconstructed, isolated
Now I see just how it works

Thinking to myself
Thinking to myself, myself
I am thinking
Hanging by a thread
Wonder what she hasn't said
I see you there

People noticing each other
They share the same existence
Doesn't make a difference

Deconstructed, isolated
Too far gone to contemplate it
Deconstructed, isolated
Now I see just how it works

Now I see how it works
How it works
Now I see how it works
How it works
