

Address me in the eyes
When you look at me and lie
'Cause I know that you're wrong
I know what's going on
Decisions have been made
A friendship's been betrayed
So come back
Pick up the drumming boys again

I know that stopping is hard to do
But just think for one second
To what this is doing to you
But deep down inside
This song's for another girl
Who can take this pain away
Once in a while
I try to forget this hate
I'll rest on it today

Sitting on your bed
The mind will just regress
And things that once were
We'll never be again
Swallowing this dust
I think about this trust
That once was before
But will never be again

Falling back
To you
And I won't
And I won't
And I try
And I try
Do you see
That my jeans
Have a c on the side
Wanting more
Not giving in
And I won't
And I won't
And I try
And I try
Do you see
That my jeans
Have a c
