

WITHOUT MY HANDS

Quietdrive

Well we stalled and we crashed
The time before it didn't last
But tonight I'm talking to you
You play yours, I'll play mine
We both heard all the lines
But right now you know what to do
(So here's what you gotta do)

Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care
We can start over again
Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care

I just want your hands, I want your touch
A little bit of heaven is just not enough
I need your hands, I need your love
A little bit of passion never felt so good
So come on, come on

Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care
We can start over again
Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
When the morning comes up with the sun
I'll leave right after you, right after you

We shouldn't have gotten involved
Now that you're falling down
Next thing I'm helping you up
But I'm still tripping over you
But I'm not worried at all
I stole a kiss from the a doll
I put your hands against the wall
And say these words back to you

Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care
We can start over again
Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care

I just want your hands, I want your touch
A little bit of heaven is just not enough
I need your hands, I need your love
A little bit of passion never felt so good
So come on, come on

Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care

We can start over again
Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
When the morning comes up with the sun
I'll leave right after you, right after you

Right after you, right after you
Right after you, right after you (so come on, come on)
Right after you, right after you
Right after you, right after you
Right after you, right after you

I just want your hands, I want your touch
A little bit of heaven is just not enough
I just want your hands, I want your touch
A little bit of heaven is just not enough
I need your hands, I need your love
A little bit of passion never felt so good
So come on, come on

Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
Cause if you don't care then I don't care
We can fall in love again
Please, please won't you stay the night?
Don't overthink it, it will be alright
When the morning comes up with the sun
I'll leave right after you, right after you
