

Hammerhead

Quill

In another time and space
I'm awaiting the awakening of day
Going far beyond the sun
Cause nothing is really what it seems

In a room within a room
Where I go to see the setting sun
In a room within a room

Hammerhead
Do you understand
Yeah the deeds of man
Worship you my hammerhead

Let me stay inside your womb
Time is no more, evolution is for fools
Should have told me long ago
What's right is wrong but yesterday is gone

Room within a room
Where I go to see the setting sun
In a room within a room

Hammerhead
Do you understand
Yeah the deeds of man
Worship you my hammerhead

I am standing on the outside looking in Searching for the end to find where to begin
Doesn't matter what you do when evolution fails to make you understand, I sure don't understand
