

Nice Day

Quimby

We count the days of the endless endgame
Just watching and watching our chosen shame
Naked faces in the golden frame
Gloomy hearts at the blase of day

It's a nice day
Such a nice day
What a nice day
Yes, a nice day

In mistakes of affection you can get lost
There won't be any help from the holy ghost go to the river at fishing time
Be damn surprised at the fish's eyes

It's a nice day
Such a nice day
