

My Wife & 2 Dogs

Quinn XCII

One half loves me, the other half is my enemy
One half thinks I'm an angel, the other thinks I'm demonic
My money's stretching like human centipede
I go make a deposit like almost every week
Change Of Scenery II's coming out really cool
This shit probably gonna buy me a swimming pool
Low ball, all of these people who want a catalogue
We're too focused, I really don't need your Adderall

I know, yeah I know how you feel, you feel kinda defeated
You're not alone
Yeah I know that's it's tough to get out of your feelings
Had to get away so we could just unplug from this
We spent seven days 'cause lately I been stuck
Buy some real estate with all of these cool songs we made
Move out to the beach with my wife and my two

We go together like fighters in leather like Rocky
Let's go to Tokyo just try all the sushi and sake
Let's make a movie with Wes Anderson directing it
You play you 'cause your perfect, yeah
I'll try me but don't expect it
I don't check my social media every week
I love myself too much to see the shit you tweet
Why does everything gotta be so damn serious?
I think you need to gain some more life experience

I know, yeah I know how you feel
You feel kinda defeated
You're not alone
Yeah I know that's it's tough to get out of your feelings

So had to get away so we could just unplug from this
