quinnie

I keep tryna fade away
Then take shape at your feet
Wearing patience on your face
Always have to
For Give
Me
Forgive me

Threw an hourglass at you
To cut us to the chase
No amount of blood I drew
Could turn your love to hate
You gather up each grain of sand
Build a castle for me
I try to be misunderstood
And I don't know why you

For Give
Me
Forgive me
For Give
Me
Forgive me

Spare me of scarcity
I'd still hear your voice through the sea
Echolocating in the next life
Crying out till we're in harmony
Show me how deep down is infinity?

Too much of a good thing
Might just be a lot of good things
Oh, beautiful days bend together
Let them be forgettable and free
No consequence to too much love within you

For
Give
Me
Forgive me
You've forgiven me
Given
Me
Forgiveness
For Give
Me
Forgive me
