

MAGIC

Queen Herby

It was magic that I was missing
Sick intuition fuck with my witchy disposition
Now, I got rituals
Tarot and crystals
Everyone needs a little magic

About time, bitch
Took ya' long enough to get the word
'Cause I've been droppin' messages like I'm a little bird
And damn, girl, you don't wanna sneak and take a peek?
The cave you fear to enter holds the treasure that you seek "Wait! I don't wanna deal with it, I just got paid
Work is really hard again, I might just lay
Binging on the couch again, I don't have time
Do this every day and then retire and die"

You dig it? You got the itches for diggin' ditches?
Or do we flip it?
You in the mood for burning bridges
And blowing kisses?
To reunite with all your witches?
See what you're missin'

It was magic that I was missing
Sick intuition fuck with my witchy disposition
Now, I got rituals
Tarot and crystals
Everyone needs a little magic

Bitch, bitch, bitch, you ain't fuckin' with the population
Tune in to another station
That's an invitation
What do you got to lose?
They don't want your liberation
They don't want you innovatin'
That's the motivation
What is a guru to do?
I thought I told ya'
Bitches be out to control ya'
Get your ancestors on the phone now
They wanna see you in the pinocle and mystical know-how

Damn, damn, damn, girl
This one in my jam, jam, jam, girl
Get your crystals out and dance, girl
Get it, look at this amethyst bad girl winnin'

All this time searching for magic
In the world outside of you
And that's alright
But, can't you see it, yeah
You are the magic
You are the magic

That I was missing
Sick intuition fuck with my witchy disposition
Now, I got rituals

Tarot and crystals
Everyone needs a little magic (Yeah, yeah, yeah, woo)

That I was missing
Sick intuition fuck with my witchy disposition
Now, I got rituals
Tarot and crystals
Everyone needs a little magic

A little magic
Everybody needs a little
