

Mood Of The Century

Queen Herby

I don't mean to brag but my energy's immaculate
I got all the sauce and I make these gurlies mad with it
I know what I want so I focus on expanding it
Flow so natural I shake my ass to it (Yeah)

Took a while to get on my feet
But I knew that I would succeed
Feel a rise in my self esteem
When I cut all the shit I don't need
Took a while but my crew elite (Wow)
Only mess with the finest peeps
Took a while, took a while to see (Okay)
And it's not that deep

I am the mood of the century
I make the rules I only move with good energy
I'm in the flow somehow, I know when it's meant for me
And if it's not I let it go so I can receive
Bitch I was born to be

Yeah, it was kind of toxic to think that I could save people
Has to be their choice to stop walking on the same needles
I keep glowing up I got Botox in my pineal
But instead of numb I choose to be peaceful

Took a while to get on my feet
But I knew that I would succeed
Feel a rise in my self esteem
When I cut all the shit I don't need
Took a while but my crew elite
Only mess with the finest peeps
Took a while, took a while to see
And it's not that deep

I am the mood of the century
I make the rules I only move with good energy
I'm in the flow somehow, I know when it's meant for me
And if it's not I let it go so I can receive
Bitch I was born to be

I was born to be, yeah
Mood of the century
I was born to be, yeah
Mood of the century
