

Good Friday (Government Music)

Qwel

[verse 1]

Divided we stand man decides to unite for bandwagon
Antagonistic fashion statements pants saggin grand dragons
Street tagging advertisers, plastic liars, bar codes
Stuff your wallets fat, misspell your cotton pharm clothes
Scared with shopping carts marks

Be aardvarks for forty hours thought, hardly a chance
How long can we dance, upon our hands for these snakes?
Dreams capes and screen savers fate baits police states
Increasing release rates complicating everything
But honestly, faking philosophies talk to me, never think
Play level as treble rings, mellow strings and boom bap Embellishing fiends with tight lids on feathery sheets like do rags
Loop that, the news cast, plastic laugh factory
Tap the screw cap masterpiece snatch the latch and key
Father testin me inventing recipes to wreck survival

Curse the ears to sneer wisdom but embrace intelligence
We count sheep on your beef but sheer skills to chill irrelevan

These cats will kill the lie and hype
Tight despite your prize heisters
Blistering heat and listening honestly skip the bullshit
Drop sloppily from seat bottom brought sodomy to the school kid

Make the children steal fruit so they can swat the lead flies
