

Alive

Rüfüs Du Sol

There's a pain in my chest that I can't describe
It takes me down and leaves me there
When I talk to the night I can feel it's stare
It creeps inside and meets me there

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I wanna make it right
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I wanna live tonight

There's a pain in my chest that I can't describe
I close my eyes but the days the same
There's a thorn in my side when I hear my name
It makes me hide
I feel the shame

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I wanna make it right
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I wanna live tonight

At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
At least I'm alive
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me
Believe me

I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I wanna make it right
I'm coming back again
I'm coming back again
I wanna live tonight
