

Nocturnal

Rüfüs Du Sol

There's a calmness
There's a feeling
Out of the window
Lost control
There's a heart beat
Fallen forever
You never believe me
But I just want to know
'Cause I can't let you go
(Cause I, Cause I, can't let you go.)

And I lost my head
On such a beautiful day
But, I keep running
I can never come on back again

You feel the wind blow soft on the skin
So elegant after such a mess
A beautiful poison
A perfect disaster
Reckoning after such a test

And I lost my head
On such a beautiful day
But, I keep running
I can never come on back again
And I lost my head
On such a beautiful day
But, I keep running
I can never come on back again
