

Standing at the Gates

Rüfüs Du Sol

There's a picture on my wall
That could bring me to my knees
And it makes me feel so small
As it takes me
There's a rabbit on the run
And she haunts me in my dreams
But I don't know where she's gone
She escaped me

She's standing at the gates
With lonely eyes
In the end, she hesitates
Just waiting
And whatever time it takes
I'll be by her side
As the sunlight fades away
Just waiting

She appears within my thoughts
In the background of my dreams
There's a place where we can talk
Where she finds me
And she whispers in my ear
And she says it's time to go
It feels like she's so real
She invites me

She's standing at the gates
With lonely eyes
In the end, she hesitates
Just waiting
And whatever time it takes
I'll be by her side
As the sunlight fades away
Just waiting
