

Two Clocks

Rüfüs Du Sol

Rest your chest on mine
Feeling two clocks combine
And I want it to unwind
Time is falling behind

This is not what's in my head
You take my heart, I want you for myself
This is not what's in my head
You take my heart, I want you for myself

Poolside, dressed in white
Sleeping under crystal sky
Sunlight sinks into your eyes
Melt your body into mine
Your lips laced in wine
I can taste it in my mind

This is not what's in my head
You take my heart, I want you for myself
This is not what's in my head
You take my heart, I want you for myself
