

Am I The Only One

R3hab

Don't know how it happened
Don't know how we ended here
I thought for a second
That you and me were in the clear

You say that you mean it, but why can't I feel it?
I used to be where you would go
I'm tired of the waiting
And I really need to know

So tell me, am I the only one
Laying sleepless until the dawn?
Whenever you are gone
I'm thinking, am I the only one?

'Cause baby, everything you don't say
Is killing a part of me (Killing a part of me)
When everything's said and done
Tell me, am I the only one?

Tell me, am I the only one?

I'm stuck in the middle
Avoiding a wrecking ball
I search for the answer
I don't really want to know

When we're body to body, I think of that body
That somewhere that you'd rather be
I'm tired of thinking
Won't you be clear with me

So tell me, am I the only one
Laying sleepless until the dawn?
Whenever you are gone
I'm thinking, am I the only one?

'Cause baby, everything you don't say
Is killing a part of me (Killing a part of me)
When everything's said and done
Tell me, am I the only one?

Tell me, am I the only one?
