

Exhale

R3hab

I'll be yours one more night
Set the "can we talk?" to the side
Lay next to you, your limbs wrapped up with mine
We'll just stay there frozen in time

I've been holding my breath
Straining my chest
Feeling the oxygen weigh me down
But the tension's too much
And the sun's coming up
Thinkin' it's time that I exhale now

Breathe in and then breathe out
Time that I exhale now
It's all so different now
Time that I exhale

I was so sure I'd fall back in place
That I'd look in your eyes and my mind would change
But here in your room, things just don't feel the same
Still I hold tight, lips hesitate

I've been holding my breath
Straining my chest
Feeling the oxygen weigh me down
But the tension's too much
And the sun's coming up
Thinkin' it's time that I exhale now

Breathe in and then breathe out
Time that I exhale now
It's all so different now
Time that I exhale

Can I exhale now, now?
Oh, can I exhale now, now?
Oh, can I exhale now, now?
Oh...
