

IDK (Imperfect)

R3hab

Girl, tell me why you're always with him
And why you only hit me after dark, yeah
Swear to god I was onto something
Should of known you was not the one, yeah
Everyday I wake up in the morning
No clue of last night or where you at
What kind of love is that?

You say you need
You say you want
Must not be me
What's going on?
Now I'm lost I don't know, yeah
This is way too much to handle
You got me feeling dismantled, yeah

Girl, you're like the bandit to my heart
And you robbed me on the spot
Cock back and aim in once
Go ahead and take your shot

For all the times you'd knock me down
You knew I'm coming back around
And that's if you want me here or not
I know I gave you all my love
Even though you don't call me everyday
You know girl I love you anyway
I just hope you get everything you want

No, I'm not perfect
And we both know no one is
But girl I'm worth it
Should've known first time when I gripped your hips

Girl, you're like the bandit to my heart
And you robbed me on the spot
Cock back and aim in once
Go ahead and take your shot
