

No Consequence

R3hab

It's something magical
Defeat the beautiful
It's always like an endless stream of consciousness
We tell until we're told
We sell until we're sold
It's always lurking in the background after all

Just breathe
Every time I come around, I feel no consequence
Take heed
Do you dare to live you life and feel no consequence?

I dreamt of falling skies
Enough to realize
I'm just a grain of sand that's falling from your hand
We tell until we're told
We sell until we're sold
It's always lurking in the background after all

Just breathe
Every time I come around, I feel no consequence
Take heed
Do you dare to live you life and feel no consequence?
