

Running On Empty

R3hab

Hold on until it's over
The time is never right
I found a reason to survive
For every altercation
For every sleepless night
Give me a reason to survive

'Cause I've been moving on
I've been running on empty 'til the day I'm done
I've been feeling so heavy every day I'm gone
'Cause I'm running on empty
Yeah, I'm running on empty 'til the day I'm done

(I've been running on empty 'til the day I'm done)
(I've been feeling so heavy every day I'm gone)
'Cause I'm running on empty
Yeah, I'm running on empty 'til the day I'm done

'Til the day I'm done

I walk on broken dreams now
Somewhere I lost my way
And found myself in disarray
No, I don't need salvation
I live with discontent
I'd rather die than play pretend

'Cause I've been moving on
I've been running on empty 'til the day I'm done
I've been feeling so heavy every day I'm gone
'Cause I'm running on empty
Yeah, I'm running on empty 'til the day I'm done

(I've been running on empty 'til the day I'm done)
(I've been feeling so heavy every day I'm gone)
'Cause I'm running on empty
Yeah, I'm running on empty 'til the day I'm done

'Til the day I'm done
