

Do You Remember

Ra Ra Riot

Wondering if all of your light it was
I would be a fool
If I let it die

Could I
Get you alone
Tonight
Oh

Do you remember what you said to me then?
Under the oak trees and the leaves withering

Do you remember what you said to me then?
Under the oak trees and the leaves withering

Don't let me be afraid of our little life apart
Darling say something
Oh, I never could

Can I
Get you alone
Tonight?
Oh tonight

Do you remember what you said to me then?
Under the oak trees and the leaves withering

Do you remember what you said to me then?
Under the oak trees and the leaves withering

On my heels
Oh I don't mind

On my heels
Oh I don't mind

When I come over to you
It's such a lonely call
She said "hey come on now"
No, we both got a little time
Tonight
Tonight
Oh tonight, oh tonight

Do you remember what you said to me then?
Under the oak trees and the leaves withering

Do you remember what you said to me then?
Under the oak trees and the leaves withering

On my heels, oh I don't mind
On my heels, oh I don't mind
On my heels, oh I don't mind
On my heels, oh I don't mind
