

Awake 24

Ra

From inside
I heard you call
Simplified
Right thru the walls
I'm falling awake
And I can see
That nothing you do
Is real to me

You're just a wave away
Ahhh
You're just a wave away
Cause

In the dark
The fires burn
I'm running hard
Too fast to turn
I still believe
I'm on my own
But I'm not sure
I can make it all alone
On my knees I drop to pray

I'm awake
Yeah, I feel awake
Feel awake
(Living in a nightmare waiting for the sky to fall)
That I feel awake
(Before I'm out of time)

And if I crawl behind the broken
Will you still come to find me
Lost with no resolve
My destiny fading away
Trying to stay alive
When all the reasons
All of the reasons
Make it too hard to
Know where to run
To hide from the sun
Before I'm undone
If I live another day
On my knees I'll drop and pray

I'm awake
Yeah, I feel awake
Feel awake
(Living in a nightmare waiting for the sky to fall)
That I feel awake
(Before I'm out of time)

Everytime
Every mini suicide
Forces you to live a lie
You drown in the compromise
You decide

Everytime
Every mini suicide
Forces you to live a lie
You drown in the compromise
You decide

This way
The light is cutting thru
Hold on to what you're meant to do

Can you feel it inside you
Are you fully charged
Cuz there's nothing that can hold you down

I'm awake
Yeah, I feel awake
Feel awake
(Living in a nightmare waiting for the sky to fall)
That I feel awake
(Before I'm out of time)
