

CRAWLING TO THE SKY

Ra

Woah-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh

To fall in love
With fantasy
The fire sleeps tonight
I hear the call
It beckons me to crawl into the sea

I can't let you hold me back from where I'm meant to be

Crawling to the sky
I know I could never trust my eyes
Lost inside a hole
Buried beneath the world I know

A circuit [?]
A mystery
The walls are closing in
And when I hide
I fall into the place I've always been

I can't let you hold me back from where I'm meant to be

Crawling to the sky
I know I could never trust my eyes
Lost inside a hole
Buried beneath the world I know

[?]
Nothing means [?] ever simple
Look at [?] I didn't know
Use that word I didn't know
Climbing out from underneath me
Bitter foes are trying to beat me
All the sounds are going down
And all the questions in the ground

Falling into rivers drowning
In the care of all the indecisive now

Crawling to the sky
I know I could never trust my eyes
Lost inside a hole
Buried beneath the world I know

Woah-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh, woah-oh
