

Intercorrupted

Ra

How can I go on
If everything is wrong?
Nothing matters in the end
Fear is in the air
And no one is aware
It's pulling on our strings again

Even if I tear away
I'll never be allowed to fight against the current
Drowning in my own dismay
But is there any other way?

Inter Intercorrupted
Your peace of mind disrupted
Too late for the world to see
The line between you and me
Inter Intercorrupted
Your innocence is hunted
Too dark for the world to see
The light between you and me

If my soul is cut
Hiding in the blood
When will the infection die?
Sanity's a liar
Tripping on a wire
Blowing all the truth sky high

I don't wanna face the fate
Of everything you told me
When you don't even know me
Drowning in my own dismay
But is there any other way?

Inter Intercorrupted
Your peace of mind disrupted
Too late for the world to see
The line between you and me
Inter Intercorrupted
Your innocence is hunted
Too dark for the world to see
The light between you and me

Intercorrupted

The violence is everywhere
It permeates the walls we live in
And we turn away cuz we don't even notice anymore
The rage that we feel inside is pointed in the wrong direction
But hate makes us feel alive
So why not leave the angels at the door?
Cuz we don't need them anymore
(And we are)

Inter Intercorrupted

The line between you and me
Inter Intercorrupted

Intercorrupted
Intercorrupted
Intercorrupted
We are, we are
