

Jezebel

Ra

Jezebel

Can you tell me what you've done to me

Cause I'm here in hell

Tryna pick up every broken piece

Hiding like a lost little animal

Sick and tired of the weight that I have to pull

Livin in a lie yeah you'd never know

But I'm too afraid now to let it go

And I don't wanna wait

For you to finally make up your mind

No you're never even on my side

Living in sacrificial suicide

You're just a nightmare that I can't wake up from

I wanna break thru the silence

I wanna know what I cannot say

Instead the endless pain

Goes on and on

And over and over

I wanna act on the violence

And kill the weakness on which you pray

But it all ends the same

It goes on and on

And over and over

Jezebel

Don't you have you any sympathy

Cause the lies you sell

Always seem to get the best of me

Holding on to all of the fantasies

All the while being held in parentheses

Eager to give up every sanity

Just so I can say that you're part of me

And I don't wanna wait

For you to finally make up your mind

No you're never even on my side

Living in sacrificial suicide

You're just a nightmare that I can't wake up from

I wanna break thru the silence

I wanna know what I cannot say

Instead the endless pain

Goes on and on

And over and over

I wanna act on the violence

And kill the weakness on which you pray

But it all ends the same

It goes on and on

And over and over

"Dear John, I'm sorry, I can't do this anymore, you're not the man I fell in love with and I have to move on with my life... goodbye"

And I don't wanna wait
For you to finally make up your mind
No you're never even on my side
Living in sacrificial suicide
You're just a nightmare that I can't wake up from

I wanna break thru the silence
I wanna know what I cannot say
Instead the endless pain
Goes on and on
And over and over

I wanna act on the violence
And kill the weakness on which you pray
But it all ends the same
It goes on and on
And over and over

Jezebel
Don't you have you any sympathy
