

Somewhere Beautiful

Ra

I feel like I'm running out of everything
Like nothing is what it was supposed to be
Lights are dimmer stars seem further in the sky
Colors fading torn away from you and I

But I won't cry
I'll keep it all inside again

I feel like the lines never seem to cross
Just running a path that's forever lost
Rain keeps falling, lightning strikes my center twice
In the storm I always have to pay the price

But I won't cry
I'll keep it all inside again

I can't wait for another life
For all this time just to pass me by
No matter where I go
I'll find a way out of this crucible
To somewhere beautiful

But I won't cry
I'll keep it all inside again

I can't wait for another life
For all this time just to pass me by
No matter where I go
I'll find a way out of this crucible
To somewhere beautiful
