A war against time, destined to lose I'll just sit and watch TV
A magical force, hypnotic drool
I'll take in all that I can see

I'm seeing chains, now hold me down The recline of modern man Neatly displayed and bundled lies An hour glass and I'm the sand

Generator, decimator Universal, devastator

A cyber involved diversity So straighten up and go on line Sexual drive intensity The darkest pit that you can find

I'm holding this key to be erased Put your life into a disk Strainful powers, social disgrace Wages war with little risk

Generator, decimator Universal, devastator Substitution, evolution Electronic, absolution

Oh, my head is always lost
And always changing mind
What's wrong just feels so right
I think I'm going blind
