

All I Got

RAC

I never jump to conclusions
I never will let you fool me
How can I follow suggestions?
When you try to act like you knew me

And I know and I know and I know I might be wrong
But I have to face this alone
Let it be let it be let it be and let it rock
I've given all I've got

I have to lose some ambition
It looks like a ship on my shoulder
When they were attempting to moving
I stay uncollapsed in the corner

Take it back, take it back at the stoplights of love
I've learned to set free to learn
Gotta go, gotta go, gotta go I'm already late
For a date with my best fate
And I know and I know and I know I'm on my own
But I learned to move on alone
Let it be let it be let it be and let it rock
I've given all I've got

And if you ask me to be friends with you, you're asking for too much
It doesn't make a lot of sense to me, but then what really does ?
It's been a lot of shaking hands lately and not a lot of hugs
Cause the bed you like to share with me is big but not wide enough

Take it back, take it back at the stoplights of love
I've learned to set free to learn
Gotta go, gotta go, gotta go I'm already late
For a date with my best fate
And I know and I know and I know down deep inside
We're all alone when we die
Let it be let it be let it be and let it rock
I've given all I've got

I've tried to cross over dead ends
But I feel trapped by my existence
And I've tried to jump over fences
Then that was my intentions
