

Losing your way, yet your stay
While the noises all around you
Progress was made in good faith
I won't let them take it from you
Be as it may, night and day
From all the love and all the virtue
Peace be with you
Bite in you time, broken stride
Are we ever gonna mend you?
All that we have here and now
And I'm counting on a breakthrough
Peace be with you

Fine, do you right, watch the same
As the darkness that you've been through
Carry the weight of the flame
It burns brighter then you meant to
Now in the main, in the haze
And the heaviness of the truth
Peace be with you

And we're all
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are

Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
Heavy little weight of who we are
