

Imaginary Friends

RAC

I don't wanna push it anymore
Was it real?
I never knew before
Look for an answer
I know it's hard to find
I let you go

I don't wanna leave it up to you
Is it me?
I'm always out of view
Hold onto something
Or leave it all behind
I let you go

Takes one to know one
And two to make amends
If you could tell the truth
Would it be the end?
Should I believe it was all pretend?
Are we real or imaginary friends?

Saw you looking through me like a ghost
Was it real or just another show?
Move onto something
I know it's hard to find
I let you know

I don't feel alone without you now
A new thing for me to figure out
We only enter where we've always been
I let you know

Takes one to know one
And two to make amends
If you could tell the truth
Would it be the end?
Should I believe it was all pretend?
Are we real or imaginary friends?

Takes one to know one
And two to make amends
If you could tell the truth
Would it be the end?
Should I believe it was all pretend?
Are we real or imaginary friends?

Takes one to know one
And two to make amends
If you could tell the truth
Would it be the end?
Should I believe it was all pretend?
Are we real or imaginary friends? (Imaginary friends)

Takes one to know one
And two to make amends
If you could tell the truth
Would it be the end?

Should I believe it was all pretend?
Are we real or imaginary friends?
