

What is God if it isn't in us?
Been to the top and it isn't enough
If you don't burn with the fire in ya
Have you even done the work?
Try to find the time inside
Body quietly abides
Lucky I'm not that attached
I'm not crazy over it

But I'm lonely
I'm lonelier than you
I know you're solo but
I'm lonely
And holding onto you
I can't take it much longer
Making it that much harder on myself
But I'm lonely
And I'm holding onto you

Always wanted to belong
To my other, not my own
Easy to find fast company
Making it last sounds better to me

'Cause I'm lonely
I'm lonelier than you
I know you're solo but
I'm lonely
And holding onto you
I can't take it much longer
Making it that much harder on myself
But I'm lonely
And I'm holding onto you

Just in my head about it
I gotta get out
Told half the story 'cause I'm Really not mad about it
I couldn't help myself and
I think you bought it
I wanna see you but
You gotta give a fuck about it

I'm lonely
I'm lonelier than you
I know you're solo (I know you're solo)

I'm lonely
I know you're solo (I know you're solo)
I know you're solo (I know you're solo)
I know you're solo (I know you're solo)
I know you're solo
