I need no one else
I need no one else
I need all the world to know I have you to myself
I don't want no one else
I'd like you for myself
You don't know that you're the perfect secret I can't tell

Little did I know
You had thought of leaving
I'm sorry that the sunshine I provided isn't letting you grow
Little did I know
Love could be so easy
But it's harder than I thought, I forgot to leave the pot by the window

I know you've gone through hell
I've pulled you through somehow
But you don't know that I can't do a thing without your help
I'd like you for myself
I'd like you for myself
I wish that I could keep you in my pocket for myself

Hey, hey
Hey, hey
Hey, hey
You're the perfect secret I can't tell
Hey, hey
I can't tell
I can't tell
I promise I can love you by myself
You're the perfect secret I can't tell
Hey, hey
