

Riptide

Rachel Chinouriri

Sometimes I'll let voices in my head
Riptide drowning my mind instead
My valentine knows why my rose is dead
Fake thought approaching the girl in bed

Can I be the one to tell that you're mine?
When all the world around you is going by?
I won't let you go down, I'll always try
I'll be the one to hold you as long as you're mine

"I love you", you said
The words play in my head
Did you really mean it or did you regret?

In the darkness my thoughts defeat my mind
The boy is here and the boy was always mine

Ooh, as long as you're
As long as you're
As long as you're
As long as you're mine
