

Outsider

Rachel Grae

I'm there when anyone needs me
Just picking up broken pieces
When you're shattered on the floor and you're bleeding
I'll stay around, I'm not leaving

Somehow I still don't belong
I feel stupid when I talk
Cause I can't tell if you're listening

Oh, I need, I need, I need somebody
More than just a
Weight leaning on me
Everyone opening up
Bout their dark side
What about mine?
What about mine?
Guess I'm an
Outsider, Outsider

I keep it all on the inside
Nobody sees it, silent when I cry
Just throw everyone's issues on top of mine
Worry bout both at the same time

Somehow I still don't belong
I feel stupid when I talk
Cause I can't tell if you're listening

Oh, I need, I need, I need somebody
More than just a
Weight leaning on me
Everyone opening up
Bout their dark side
What about mine?
What about mine?
Guess I'm an
Outsider, Outsider
Who, Outsider

I need, I need, I need somebody
More than just a
Weight leaning on me
Everyone opening up
Bout their dark side
What about mine?
What about mine?
Guess I'm an
Outsider, Outsider
Outsider