

Come One Day (Sei Tu Sei)

Rachelle Ann Go

Far away a star that's never shone
Here I am, another night alone
If only dreams had wings
Then you would fly to me
And finally bring me home

Come one day, I'll await
To find my life has turned a page
Oh come one day, soon I pray
Two hearts will be forever changed
I believe this hope inside of me
Will somehow see the light
Oh come one day, I will see
The dream I dream in your eyes

So I wait as time keeps moving on Tears may fall, but maybe not for long
If only you were here
These clouds would disappear
As I went to your arms

Come one day, I'll await
To find my life has turned a page
Oh come one day, soon I pray
Two hearts will be forever changed
I believe this hope inside of me
Will somehow see the light
And come one day, I will see
The dream I dream in your eyes

Fate, it's written in the stars
What's meant to be will be sent to me
In my heart I believe in destiny and love
It will be here when it's finally time
And just the way I imagined it
I know it will be mine

Come one day, I'll await
To find my life has turned a page
Oh come one day, soon I pray
Two hearts will be forever changed
I believe this hope inside of me
Will somehow see the light
Oh come one day, I will see
The dream I dream in your eyes
