

Unbreakable

Rachelle Ann Go

I let myself believe
That I was oh so tough
I never would get taken in by love
I wouldn't be naive
But then I looked in your eyes
Love came and took me by surprise

I let my feelings show
I gave my all and then I watched you go

I thought my heart was unbreakable
You turned away and it shattered my whole world
My faith in us was so unshakable
Then I got fooled and I got schooled
I heard a voice inside that told me, girl
Nothing is unbreakable

You had a hold on me
I thought that I was home
I said goodbye to all those nights alone
I guess I couldn't see
Love's just a game that you play
It's over, it's all so yesterday

The pieces of our past
They're hurting me like bits of broken glass

I thought my heart was unbreakable
You turned away and it shattered my whole world
My faith in us was so unshakable
Then I got burned, that's how I learned
I heard a voice inside that told me, girl
Nothing is unbreakable

Tears in my eyes
I'm sifting through your lies
Trying to rebuild
My life away from you

I thought my heart was unbreakable
You turned away and it shattered my whole world
My faith in us was so unshakable
Then I got fooled and I got schooled
I heard a voice inside that told me, girl
Nothing is unbreakable
Nothing is unbreakable
Nothing is unbreakable
Nothing is unbreakable
