

You Are My Obsession

Rachelle Ann Go

I never gonna let you go
You can see it in my eyes
I know, you gotta leave
I think of you all the time
Can you be in my fantasy?
We're alone 'cause no ones around
I know that this is it
We got that special bond
I feel the love everywhere

You are my obsession now
Burning in my heart somehow
You are my fire painted with desire
You are my obsession now
Burning in my heart somehow
Everywhere I go, I hold you in my heart
I know my obsession

I wish that you would say
I want you here all the time
But I know that you love me
I feel it in my mind
Look around there's no one else
Than I fancy as much as you
You know that this is it you
Think of me too you feel the love everywhere

There's no one else that's here for you
And me in the future I can see
We're meant to be you know
I will always sacrifice I love to look in your eyes
