

Biggest Fan

Racoon

I never meant to stalk or haunt you or to follow but without you my life would suddenly go dull (dumb dumb doll)

Got all your posters man
I hung 'em in my hallway So where ever you may be you're always here with me

I've got you underneath my skin
I don't know where I should begin

I'll always be your biggest fan
but you don't know who I am
One day you'll know me man
one day you'll understand
That I'll be your biggest fan
one day you'll know me man
Got seven setlists and I even got two t-shirts I'm looking prettier than yesterday, yesterday one t-shirt's made by hand the other one is paid for And man, I promise I won't download anything

I've got you underneath my skin
I don't know where I should begin

One day you'll know me man
one day you'll understand
That I'll be your biggest fan

I'll be your biggest
I'll be your biggest
I'll be your be biggest fan

I'll always be your biggest fan
One day you'll know me man
one day you'll understand

I have travelled 'cross the land
I was dying to see the band I'll make you understand I'm much more than a fan I've travelled 'cross the land and just to see the band and guess what here I am!
