

Hate To Love

Racoon

And the record's playing on
And the people talk their shit
And the world, it turned out round
With so much crap on it
And I listen to a song
I repeat it once or twice
And as I look into her eyes
I fear a cruel goodbye

Oh, so I hate to love
I hate to love
Oh, well I hate to love
I just hate to love
Because I don't wanna lose you, my dear

We get stuck again between
All the words we wanna scream
And then the silence, it always wins
So we shut up again
And there's no wisdom in the air
And I know words for anything
Only the fear, she's 'bout to break
She can't be fixed again

Oh, so I hate to love
I hate to love
Oh, well I hate to love
I just hate to love
Because I will lose you, my dear

Oh, I hate to love
I hate to love
Oh, well I hate to love
I hate to love
Because I will lose you, my dear
Oh, because I will lose you, my dear
